

JAILED FOR MUTILATING
PUBLIC LIBRARY BOOKS

Brooklyn Youth Who Cut Pages
From 23 Volumes Is Sent to Workhouse.

After he had pleaded guilty to-day to mutilating books in the Montague branch of the Brooklyn Library, Morris Sherris, twenty-one years old, of

No. 453 Haddon Avenue, Brooklyn, was sent to the workhouse for thirty days by Presiding Justice Nathan in Municipal Court. Accused of mutilating books, Sherris said that he had been studying to take a civil service examination and had wanted the information in the books. He said that if it were not for the youth and the fact that this was his first offense he would have given him a maximum sentence of three years. Judge Nathan's Name Confirmed. (Continued from Page 1.) The judge's name was confirmed by the jury. The judge of the Southern District of New York.

FUNERAL HOLDS UP
7TH REGIMENT AS IT
STARTS ON ITS HIKE

Impressive Scene as Body of Sergeant Colchester of Co. H
Gets Full Military Honors.

Evening World.)

HEADQUARTERS NEW YORK
DIVISION FIRST FIELD ARTIL-LERY, MAIDEN, Tex., Aug. 24.—

Plans for the big hike of the Seventh Infantry were suddenly disarranged this morning through the wish of many members of the regiment to hold a full military funeral over the remains of First Sergeant Harold Colchester, Company H, who died of dysentery as the regiment was packing up for the march.

Company H threw its packs aboard regimental baggage wagons and marched in a body as escort to the remains of Sergeant Colchester. The regimental field band also fell out of the hike to be present at the funeral. Pallbearers, with arms twined about each other's shoulders to furnish a resting place for the casket, made an impressive scene as they paraded through the streets of Macon.

Mexican women, Texas women and the few women who have come from New York to be near relatives, wept without restraint as the first military funeral procession of the New York division passed through Macon's streets. At the Methodist church Chaplain William E. McCord read the full Episcopal burial service, after which George Colyer Jr., bugler of the field band, who had often awakened Sergeant Colchester at reveille, attempted to play taps. The bugler broke into tears before the bars of taps were fully finished.

The death of Sergeant Colchester brought to the front the tragic business of calling out the young married men and bread winners because the government has devised no better way for emergencies. Sergeant Colchester's wife, now a widow with two children, was reported somewhere in Texas rushing to her husband's bedside while the funeral service was being held.

Company H, with the band moved off to join the regiment at Mission on a hike eight hours after it had started. Six miles away it made camp at 11 o'clock this morning under torrid sky. Storm warnings hoisted last night indicated the approach of another hurricane such as that which had had the wires cut at Macon paralyzed since last Friday. The same kind of a fall that preceded the previous hurricane still continues here.

Boisterous life at the border is again vying with the boys from the North. The health report shows how the change has agreed with the majority. The men themselves, tanned and brown and in the best of physical shape, tell the rest of the story. The boys from New York, for the most part tall, slender and athletic, size up in favorable comparison with the rangy Texans. And the camp here shows how adaptable the average American is to all conditions of life.

Men who conduct their own business in New York; men whose hard-earned work was, apparently, the clipping of coupons and watching the stock ticker; clerks in all callings, have buckled down to the routine of camp life and have been doing men's work.

They have been digging trenches, putting up wooden habitations, laying wooden floors, carrying and cutting and nailing lumber, driving auto trucks, guiding mules, doing clerical work, drilling, parading, going through field exercises, constructing roads, and between breaths asking: "When are we going home? When are we going to get our pay?"

They have answered the first question themselves; the State and Federal paymasters are filling up the wages gap as fast as possible. Whether a man has been in need of it, or whether it has been adding to his store of coin, the coming of the currency has made all the difference in the world. In regard to going home, the boys are learning that the preparations they themselves are making mean a long stay at the border.

They realize that the "barbed wire fence," as the Texans call the troops stretched along the border, has had its effect on the other side of the Rio Grande. There have been no raids since the National Guard came to the end of Texas.

The boys showed up in their best form during the hurricane which struck camp about 5 o'clock last Friday afternoon. They rallied to the work of rescue with a will that was unconquerable, even by the elements. The greatest rivalry in this work was manifest, as it is in all work of the regiments. Warning of the approach of the hurricane had come by a wireless Paul Revere from Brownsville, but it is an almost impossible task to prepare against the wind and rain in this country, once they make up their minds to run amuck. The rain cut like a knife and the wind whipped flies and tents and poles away from their fastenings.

A pleasant breeze from the north made New York hold up its head to-day after three of the hottest days on record. This came as a welcome aftermath of yesterday's storm which broke the heat spell that caused upward of a dozen deaths and many prostrations.

At 11 o'clock the mercury registered 72, as compared with 90 and above yesterday. The humidity also sub-

BACON AN UN-NEUTRAL:
NOT AFTER HYPHEN VOTE

Candidate Explains His Campaign
Stand—Follows Republicans on Votes for Women.

Robert Bacon, Republican candidiate for United States Senator, announced to-day that he would make no appeal for the so-called German-American vote and that his campaign will be strictly un-neutral.

"I am an avowed un-neutral," he said. "I do not believe that a strict neutrality of spirit is possible. There can be a sort of official neutrality assumed, but individual neutrality of spirit is impossible to my mind."

Regarding women suffrage, Mr. Bacon said he stood for the platform adopted by the Republicans. He declined to discuss at this time the proposed constitutional amendment for national woman suffrage.

HIS ENTIRE FORTUNE.

"With all my worldly goods I thee endow," said the excited individual standing before the altar.

"There," remarked an elderly gentleman in a front pew, "gone John's other package of cigarettes."

HOW TO BE SLIM
If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve or exercise your system, or take any medicine, or use any of the so-called "fat-burners" that are sold everywhere. Take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Wash yourself once a week and use what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless, and a week's trial should convince any one that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unwholesome fat.—Adv.

"THE SHOE THAT HOLDS ITS SHAPE"

'3.00'3.50'4.00'4.50'5.00'&'6.00

TO THE PUBLIC:—

Many times I have been asked why I stamp my name and the retail price on the bottom of shoes before they leave the factory.

When I began manufacturing July 6, 1876, manufacturers sold their shoes to wholesale and retail dealers throughout the country without any retail price being stamped on them. This gave the dealer an opportunity to charge a higher price than the shoes were actually worth. After giving the matter careful consideration, I believed I could guarantee the wearer more value for his money if I fixed the retail price according to the true value of the shoes.

In 1883 I decided to stamp my name and retail price on the bottom of all shoes before they left the factory and to use my portrait as a trade-mark, thus guaranteeing full value and protecting the wearer against high prices for inferior shoes. For 33 years the name W. L. DOUGLAS has stood for shoes of the highest standard of quality for the price. The retail prices are the same everywhere. They cost no more in San Francisco than they do in New York. Extensive and continuous advertising in newspapers and periodicals throughout the country has made the W. L. Douglas shoes known everywhere.

My time is still devoted to this great business and that my plan of fixing the retail price has been successful, is attested by the fact that the sales are now the largest in the history of the business.
